

Michael Seward has been an instructor at Minneapolis Community and Technical College since 2001. He received his Masters in Fine Arts in Creative Writing from the University of Minnesota in 2001 and his Masters in Arts in German Studies from the same institution in 1998. He has received two Fulbright scholarships and a US Congressional scholarship to Germany. He has taught numerous subjects (English Literature, Creative Writing, Composition, Educational Methodology and Assessment, German Language and Literature) at a variety of levels (from 8th grade to graduate level courses) in a number of countries (the US, Slovakia, Germany and Costa Rica). He has presented at national and regional conferences in the United States on best assessment practices, and his stories and articles have appeared in several publications, including a piece in *Other Voices*.